

STATE OF TEXAS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

We have no higher priority — no greater responsibility — than to provide young Texans with the knowledge and skills to have successful lives and lead Texas into the future. Across our great state, human resources professionals play a vital role in ensuring our districts fulfill this fundamental mission.

Human resources professionals are responsible for implementing effective practices for the hiring of quality staff to teach young Texans and keep schools running smoothly. They serve the needs of students, teachers and administrators, creating a healthy environment in the best interest of the students.

At this time, I encourage all Texans to join me in recognizing all of our dedicated human resources professionals for the important role they play in our educational system.

Therefore, I, Rick Perry, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim October 9, 2013, to be

Texas Education Human Resources Day

in Texas, and urge the appropriate recognition whereof.

In official recognition whereof,
I hereby affix my signature this the 29th day of August, 2013.

Rick Perry
Governor of Texas
